Free advice for Single Payment Scheme claimants

The new Farm Business Advice Service - 'Knowing your options' is here to help eligible farmers explore their business options in the face of the new Single Payment Scheme (SPS).

Free and confidential advice is available to SPS claimants delivered by knowledgeable and experienced advisers who can guide you through your future business options.

If you are looking for ideas for additional income or simply need advice on how to take your business forward, the Farm Business Advice Service - 'Knowing your options' can help.

What is available?

Tailored one-to-one advice is available to eligible callers via telephone, in person at clinics and, in some cases, through half-day farm visits.

Our advisers can discuss the implications of SPS and explore your options which may include:

- consolidating or restructuring the farm business
- changing operational aspects
- farming more land - possibly with others
- exploring alternative enterprise developments to boost farm income
- planning for retirement
- using your skills to work off the farm

Our advisers will also signpost you to appropriate business and environmental services and training opportunities or grant aid that is relevant to your needs.
